DESCRIPTION

Accountants in this database make an average of $75,000 per year and are continuously purchasing products for their businesses and personal life. These highly-skilled accountants perform a wide range of financial assessments including audits, tax preparation, accounting, payroll or fiscal consulting. They work for a varied assortment of clients including government agencies, nonprofit organizations, corporations and even make individual financial evaluations. The information in this file has been multi-sourced from professional directories, state licensing records and other proprietary data sources. Because of the ever changing tax laws and financial regulations, accountants are always investing time and money into learning these new rules. They also frequently update their computers and software to stay current in the lucrative field of accounting. Best Professions database is an essential part of any campaign dealing with financial publications, office supply stores, software distributors, financial education providers, credit cards companies or any other products and services that can help them stay at the forefront of the financial industry.
